1 Larceny	1 Death Investigation	1 Warrant Arrest
1 Vandalism	1 Assault/Battery	1 Juvenile-Other

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Dayshift started out quiet but got busier throughout the day. Officers investigated a death which was determined to be of natural causes. Officers responded to a report of a male sleeping behind the wheel of a car on the side of the road with the car running. He was contacted and determined to have an outstanding warrant for drug charges. He was arrested and booked. His vehicle registration was expired over a year with false tabs on the license plate. The vehicle was towed. Officers responded to a dispute between two homeless men downtown where one pepper sprayed the other. The suspected pepper sprayer was located and wanted for a prior felony case. He went to jail.

Sgt. Neves

NUMBER OF REPORTS: 6

CATEGORIES

1 Assist Other Agency	1 Violation of Court Order	2 Assault & Battery
1 Warrant Arrest	1 Narcotics

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Today was a steady day, with calls for service coming in at regular intervals. During this shift, officers located a missing person out of Livingston. The adult was fine and did not need police assistance. We contacted the originating agency and he was removed from the missing persons database. Officers also contacted a female at her residence. She had got to the doctor's office and reported that she was assaulted by her husband. The husband has been gone for some time, and the incident occurred over 3 months ago. A report was taken; however, she did not want a protective order or any assistance.

SHIFT: GRAVEYARD SHIFT
Sgt. Cervantez

NUMBER OF REPORTS: 4

CATEGORIES

1 Disturbance
1 Security Check

1 Narcotics

1 DWI

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

An officer contacted a female who was walking in the roadway. After identifying herself it was determined she had a warrant for drug charges. During the search incident to arrest she was found in possession of drugs. She was booked into jail. An officer made a traffic stop and found the driver to have a warrant. The driver was also showing signs of intoxication and performed poorly on field sobriety tests. He was arrested for DUI and the warrant and was taken to jail.
